Description

Ferraro-Emporio di Sicilia is a young company established by the Ferraro brothers in 2013. It arises from the combination of a passion for good food and a deep connection with their land. The idea of bringing together into a single brand the excellence of some Hyblaean food manufacturers, many of them still unknown outside the Sicilian territory, has led to the creation of Ferraro- Emporio di Sicilia, a name that is intended to represent the identity of a territory: the Hyblaean Mountains and Sicily in general. The aim is to introduce a new and almost hidden Sicily, that of the small farmers whose production process is still untouched by industrial progress, as related to production techniques and traditional crafts.
